Greywake Pinot Gris '14 (New Zealand) ~ A plush concoction of poached pears, red apples and quince jelly make for a rich aromatic profile with additional hints of honeysuckle and a cardamom-like spiciness. The palate has ample body, succulent ripeness and a herbal savoriness giving the wine an intriguing array of flavors in a supple, richly concentrated just off-dry style.

Gueguen Chablis '14 (France) - This comes from vines in Chichée on the warm right bank of the Serein River. It is a ripe wine, full of rich apricot and lime fruits and a straight line of acidity that gives the Chablis a crisp texture. The aftertaste is lively and the wine is ready to drink." The Wine Enthusiast, 90 Points

Twomey Sauvignon Blanc '14 (CA) - The 2014 Sauvignon Blanc is a multifaceted wine that combines the best elements of the four estate vineyards. It has a light straw yellow color and an enticing nose of kaffir lime, pear, elderberry, crystalized ginger and wet slate. The full palate is highlighted by a sweet attack which is deftly balanced by fresh, vibrant acidity and a purity of fruit. This layered, complex, well-knit wine has an extremely long finish with echoes of citrus, stone fruit and minerality.
